Hell, Purgatory, Heaven, the beloved Beatrice – archetypical images which have influenced European thought for centuries. And who does not know of “l'amor che move il sole e l'altre stelle” – the Love which moves the sun and stars? The whole gamut of Dante’s thought will be considered at these Seminars. This is not a lecture course. Small groups of students absorb the appropriate readings – Italian is not necessary – and then discuss them, considering their relevance to our times and our selves.

The Dante Seminars are under the direction of Dr. Giuseppe Mazzotta from Yale University, who is an internationally renowned Dante Scholar. The Seminars (Undergraduate: LUCC 399E/3 01-6 credits; LUCC 398E/4 01-3 credits or Graduate: Special 602A/3 01-6 credits) are held on Mondays from 3:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. and are open to all students. For further information call Lonergan University College (848-2280) or, better, drop in and see the College at 7302 Sherbrooke St. W., at the corner of West Broadway. You can be sure of a warm welcome.
